

The Law «About the State Emblem of the Republic of Uzbekistan» was adopted in July 2, 1992 in the tenth session of the Supreme Council of the Republic of Uzbekistan.

The State Emblem of the Republic of Uzbekistan involves daily bread, stems with opening cotton bolls — the main wealth of our sunny country, made it famous in the world. Ears and cotton bolls interweaved with the ribbon of the State Flag mean consolidation of the nations, living in the country.

In the top of the Emblem there is octahedron, symbolizing mark of confirmation of the republic, and inside of it there are the crescent and the star.

In the center of the Emblem there is drawn a bird Khumo with open wings — the symbol of happiness and freedom. These symbol represent the hopes of our people for peace, prosperity, happiness and prosperity.

At the bottom of the Emblem there is an inscription "Uzbekistan" on the cover of the national flag of the Republic.
