

The Centre for Creation of Software Products and Machine Software Complexes was founded on the basis of the Decree #32 of the Cabinet of Ministers of the Republic of Uzbekistan on February 7, 2012. The centre is a network profile academic institution and carries out fundamental and practical researches in the following areas: modeling of complex systems, optimization and management, intellectual data analysis and decision making; signals and treating images. The core tasks of the centre include:

- take part in investigation of large scale scientific-technical, production and socio-economic projects
- create information systems and software products for enterprises of leading economic branches, carry out fundamental, practical and innovative researches on enhancing them
- work out technical tasks and terms on the production of software products and machine software complexes based on certain orders of production enterprises
- provide technical support for information systems and software products used in enterprises
- organize the exports of software products to foreign countries
- prepare highly skillful scientific and scientific-pedagogical personnel

Official website of the centre