On April 22-23 of this year, a group of talented students of TUIT took part in the international student competition "Nokia - 201 2019", which was held in Moscow.

Students of our university took an active part in this competition, showed good results among 25 teams and were awarded with special prize - a certificate for training in training courses.

TUIT Press Service