

Since May 14 this year, the theater team of the Tashkent University of Information Technologies named after Muhammad al-Khwarizmi "Young operators" shows the play "Children of the State" in secondary schools in the Yunusabad district.

Today, the theater team presented the performance to students of secondary school №327. The performance "Children of the State" made a great impression on youth.

The university's theater team is honored to present their repertoire on high school scenes during May.