

On June 15, at the faculty of professional education in the sphere of ICT of the Tashkent University of Information Technologies named after Muhammad al-Khwarizmi the event “Awarding the best” was organized.

The purpose of this event is to encourage active youth and increase the initiative of all students.

The event was attended by the dean of the faculty, deputy deans, teachers and students of the faculty. The most active students were awarded in the following nominations: “The most exemplary student”, “The best communication student”, “The most enterprising student”, “The best head of the year”, “The most exemplary group of the year”, “The best leader of the year”, “The best programmer of the year”, “The best graduate of the year”, etc. The winners were awarded with diplomas and memorable gifts.

TUIT Press Service